

BOUKHA BOKOBSA BLACK

This bottle appeared in the 1990's and soon became an alternative for women who found the taste of the original too strong. This BOUKHA combines all the flavor of the fig and a perfect distillation. Its made only out of natural ingredients. The figs that are used to make this BOUKHA come from the sunniest place of the Mediterranean area. It is double distilled, in order to keep the original taste and make it sweeter to drink BOUKHA Black can be drunk either pure or in Cocktail. Its taste is softer that the original one and yet it still keeps the aromas of the figs.
