

KLIPFEL RIESLING GRAND CRU KASTELBERG

Kirchberg de Barr is a named vineyard of the Alsace Grand Cru appellation, meaning that Kirchberg de Barr may be used as part of the appellation title on wine labels. As the name suggests, it is located in the commune of Barr in the Bas-Rhin sub-region of Alsace.

temperature : 10-12 ° C
Care: 10 to 15 years

Tasting : The nose is racy, very warm, typical of toast and citrus. The mouth is marked by a beautiful material perfectly structured, revealing a very beautiful minerality, aromas of peaches, citrus, slightly smoked, it has a very nice freshness. It is a powerful and structured wine.

Food and wine pairing: Fish, seafood, poultry, fresh cheeses